

The Dealio

- Each team member should appear in at least one photo.
- Each photo should have at least one team member in it, but the more the merrier.
- Photos specifying “entire team” must have the entire team to get the points. If self-timer or a third party aren't possible for some reason, you can take more than 1 photo and switch out so everyone is represented between the photos. You only get the points once, though.
- Each objective can only be scored once, unless otherwise stated.
- Some objectives are a bit open-ended, or interpretive. Use your creativity.
